Created mid-18th century to answer spa goers, this park is, together with the 4 heures ones, one of the favourite places for walks in the town. Some interesting trees, a water piece with a fountain, alleys lined with charms and elm trees make it stand out beautifully. There you will find 19th century buildings, testimonies of the eclectic taste of the time: The Leopold II gallery, all metal and glass, Queen Marie-Henriette Pavilion, and the Petits Jeux one, home to the Tourist Office.
