This interpretative centre, dedicated to bats, offers an interesting angle on the former quarries of Geromont: a Natura 2000 site in the Ourthe valley.

Step into the building, designed to be in harmony with nature, to discover the universe of this little mammal, source of both fear and fascination.

From a tale to another

Through time, bats have been named the devil's pet, considered a warning that dramatic events were to happen, a symbol of peace and long-lasting life...

Is it blind? Does it drink human blood? An interactive trail will explore the many myths surrounding this flying animal.

Practical information

- Accessible to all, all year round
- Groups of 15+ persons – please book beforehand
- Pets not allowed
