This stunning estate near Saint-Hubert offers nature-lovers a wealth of green spaces, stretching over 1,350 hectares. The two streams, lined with willows and maple trees are perfect excuses for walks and picnics.

Description

- The Provincial Estate of Mirwart is full of little treasures. It includes a fish farm (35 ponds) renowned for the quality of its "fario" trout
- Just a step away, is the didactic apiary of Marsoult
- Don't miss the beautiful beech forest mixed with some oaks and Douglas fir, spruce and larch

- The edges of streams are naturally colonized by alders, willows and maples.
- The estate has a remarkable historical past found in many places of the forest through a small heritage interesting (blast furnace of the 16C, cooler, old bridges, ponds ...).

Activities

- Visit of the fish farm (please book in advance)
- Nature-themed guided walks

Come relax and marvel in this beautiful green space
