The International Gomzé Golf Club is located on the crossroads of three regions: the Condroz, the Ardennes and the Herve region.

The undulating international-level 18-hole course (par 72) is located between the valleys of the Ourthe, the Amblève and the Vesdre rivers and never fails to impress with its hundred years old trees. Designed by Belgian architect Paul Rolin and inaugurated in 1988, the estate has hosted many renowned tournaments at international levels.
