There is much to do by the medieval castle of Agimont: paintball, airsoft, adventure park but also rope challenge, death-ride, abseiling, bungy jumping... all led by experienced instructors. Thrills guaranteed!

A wide range of activities

- A cowboy village
- 16 grounds for paintball, junior paintball and laser games
- A tree top adventure trail

A unique setting

The castle, nestled in 10 ha of woodlands, was given by the Duke of Guise and the Prince Pierre of Orléans-Bragance to the Count and Countess of Paris for their wedding in 1931. Set on a rocky outcrop, built in blue granite, it overlooks the region beautifully.
