Visit La Boverie, an iconic cultural site in Liège: both an art museum and an international exhibition space.

Eclectic in style, this building is a piece of lasting heritage from the world fair of 1905. It is now home to Liège Fine Arts Museum and features, among other collections, remarkable selections of Walloon Art. Its exceptional temporary exhibitions attract visitors from all over the world.

Follow your visit by a stroll of the surrounding park, so loved by the locals for its soothing qualities and vibrant palette of green.

With the new footbridge linking both sides of the river, La Boverie museum and the park are just 700 m from the Liège-Guillemins railway station.
