The Centre Ardenne observatory, in Neufchâteau, opens its doors to everyone: those discovering stars and the universe as well as professionals wishing to analyse space a little further.

Program

The site offers a wide range of activities: tours of the site, sessions in the planetarium, lectures on astronomy, presentation of how the different tools work, playful animations, exhibitions...

No skill no previous experience is required. It's all about curiosity and a love for learning.

Along the year

Don't miss these special events:

- The night of the shooting stars

- The dark, dark night
- The national day celebrating astronomy
