Visit an authentic Belgian brasserie in Blaton. All beers are brewed and bottled on the premises.

A micro-brewery with character

The micro-brewery was launched in May 2004 by Frédéric Baert. The name of this micro-brewery demonstrates the will of the brewer to respect the know-how of yesteryear where all the ingredients used are locally sourced. The local Beloeil malt house allows the brewery to work with six varieties of malt.

Beers with special flavours

Visit the facilities of a real craft brewery. From brewing to bottling and the racking room.

Indulge in a tasty beer tasting to sample the Authentic Brasserie:

Blonde, Amber, 62l, Triple, Christmas Blonde, Stout, Three Channels Pils, Season, Cuvée de la Grande Bruyère and Triple Hope.

Take some time out to visit an authentic brewery and discover the true pleasure of beer: Authentic Brasserie in Blaton.
