Directly inspired by the world of video games, BattleKart brings karting into a new era. In Mouscron, the virtual world becomes real.

BattleKart is the first karting-gaming centre in the world. Visitors can drive on a virtual track projected on a huge cinema screen on the ground, giving the impression you are in a famous video game.

The site

- Two 2,000 m² tracks, each offering the possibility to play on 12 karts
- A bar overlooking the tracks

Practical information

- The bar and toilets are both accessible to visitors with reduced mobility.
- Please note you need to be 1.45 m high at least to join
- Free parking on site.
