In Eupen, the famous European crossroad, visitors can explore IKOB, a Museum of Contemporary Art used as an exhibition and discussion space.

IKOB is situated between Belgium, Germany, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. This museum has a leading role as an introduction to contemporary art in Belgium, naturally sharing this passion with the neighbouring countries.

Its location also means its exceptional temporary exhibitions, reflecting the latest trends, feature international artists.

The large IKOB collections includes pieces by famous national and international artists such as Jonathan Meese, Guillaume Bijl, Jacques Charlier, Patrick Everaert, Günther Förg, Michel François, Johan Tahon, Yves Zurstrassen or Marin Kasimir.
