Discover the new Centre Keramis de la Louvière. A museum dedicated to ceramics and earthenware installed on the site of the factory Royal Boch.

Built on the site of the famous Royal Boch Factory, Keramis offers a museum space, a true centre of contemporary art and a place of creation. The museum presents the collections relating to the history of the former Royal Boch factory and the unpublished collection of ceramics of the XXth and XXIth centuries of the Wallonia-Brussels Federation.

As part of the promotion of contemporary artistic creation, Keramis also organizes exhibitions, study days, conferences, or even meetings. As a place of creation, it also has an artist's residence and a workshop.
