The Open Air Museum of Sculpture or the Tower of St. Martin displays monumental sculptures on blue stones by artists from all over the world.

Overlooking the village of Comblain-au-Pont, this site is a beautiful stroll from Leblanc Place to the Saint-Martin Tower where you will discover works by sculptors from around the world who participated in the International Symposium of Sculpture between 1995 and 2006.

During your stroll, do not hesitate to make a stop to visit the cemetery and the tower Saint-Martin.
