Join the Confrérie du vignoble de l'Abbaye de Villers for a visit of the most famous abbey in Walloon Brabant's vineyards.

A unique perspective

The guild chose the ruins of Villers-la-Ville's Cistercian abbey to plant its vineyard, thus bringing back to life a tradition started in the 12th century then abandoned during the French Revolution. The estate counts a plain and four terraces, an enchanting little green haven.

And its very own "appellation"

The Villers-la-Vigne® appellation covers 4 original products, unique by their terroir and vinification process: a red primeur wine, a white wine, a 43° Marc and a 17° Mistelle.

Visits of the vineyard

- Guided tours of the vineyards
- History of winemaking in Wallonia
- Tasting of the products made on site

Visits for groups, companies, associations can be arranged in French, Dutch, English, German, Italian and Spanish

Activities organised by the Confrérie

Celebrations, the Jazz Wine Session, a choir, excursions, travels...
