The European Night dedicated to bats aims at presenting ways of protecting this fascinating animal in Wallonia. The event will take place in Comblain-au-Pont: bats have called the village's underground sites their home.

Program

- Flashlight in hand, you will get a chance to see them flying gracefully around - quite a unique experience.
- You will also discover the many actions taken this last decade to preserve their habitat.
- For this special evening, visitors will be able to listen to their spectacular songs thanks to an ultrasonic detector.

A fantastic event, which will also help protect bats in Comblain.
