The picturesque village of Our, with its sandstone buildings, typical of the Ardenne, and the Saint-Laurent church, listed as a historical monument, is sure to steal your heart. The area with its green landscapes and forests offer many excuses for walks and bike rides. Foodies won't be disappointed either: Chef Maxime Collard's restaurant and the famous Chariot à fondue make quite the gourmet stop.

A preserved cultural and natural heritage

Situated in the province of Luxembourg and in the commune of Paliseul, Our can be accessed by crossing two stone bridges carved in a half-moon shape. The village's focal point is the beautiful parish church, enclosed within a loop of a river.

Visitors will delight in its wealth of traditional houses built of sandstone and its religious heritage, with the church of St Lawrence, which has been listed as an important monument since

Walks and bike rides

The surrounding valleys and woodlands offer many signposted walks and cycle paths. Perfect for nature lovers!

A gastronomic stop

Our features high-quality restaurants such as Chef Maxime Collard's La Table de Maxime and Les Terrasses de l'Our. The chariot à fondue, a carriage drawn by local horses, combines a lovely ride through the region, a delicious fondue and a selection of terroir products. Quite a twist on your usual meal!
