Namur's Festival International du Film Francophone (International French Film Festival) is an absolute must for all movie lovers.

The FIFF is THE event of the season for all lovers of French films: no less than 140 screenings and productions from all corners of the French-speaking world. The festival also awards Bayard d'Or trophies to different genres.

FFIF: More than just a movie festival

Aside from exploring the movie world, the Festival organises workshops and meetings with professionals to imagine the French movie world of tomorrow.

The festival also contributes to the education of its younger audience with special activities and screenings for 3-25 years old. The FIFF aims at presenting a fascinating range of French-speaking movies, a crossroads allowing the public and professionals to interact.
