The historical quarter of Namur will welcome a fascinating nature photography festival: a fantastic opportunity to dream about the most enchanting places in the world.

About the festival

Internationally renowned photographers will feature their captures of nature scenes. The pictures will be on show in several places in Namur, thus offering an enchanting stroll through the Walloon city. Growing more successful from one year to another, this event is now considered the largest nature photography festival in the whole of Benelux.

Program

The city will become, for a few days, an extraordinary art gallery.

Among the many pictures on show will be nature snapshots, some offering a glimpse of wild animals in their habitats, others focusing on stunning landscapes or floral details.

The event also includes conferences, a nature bookshop and stalls presenting photography material.

At the heart of the historic quarter

The many exhibitions will be located in the pedestrian area of the capital of Wallonia: the Saint-Aubain cathedral, the Îlot des Bateliers, the Galerie du Cap Nord, the Bourse (Palais des Congrès), the Musée Provincial des Arts Anciens, the Notre-Dame church, the Place d'Armes, the Galerie du Beffroi and the Parliament of Wallonia.
