Join the Knights of Emine and share the town's love for the Dragon carnival.

The legend of the Knights and the dragon

The legend starts in the heather lands where 9 local men decided to unite and free the population from the dragon Fashoom, which was ferociously guarding the only drinking water source of the village. They fought fiercely for days and succeeded, with the help of children, to push him away...

This vengeful dragon does come back once a year to strip the villagers of their possessions. 45 knights, supported by their wives and children, vanquish every single time.

A carnival under the sign of fire

For a weekend, the villagers of Emynes all come together – happiness all around!

A fantastic program awaits:

- On Friday evening, join the party at the Emynes Youth Club,
- On Saturday afternoon, don't miss the children's carnival, with challenges and games led by the knights,
- On Sunday, the carnival will go through the streets of Emynes. The festivities will on conclude on the fire show, fireworks and a bonfire.

Come and enjoy this incredibly cheerful moment in Emynes.
