A unique immersive experience in Belgium! Thanks to this flight simulator, you will get a chance to pilot the airline the most sold in the world, the Boeing 737 NG. The cockpit, complete with a panoramic screen, is a perfect replica.

From the briefing to the landing

The team will brief you on how the plane works and will teach you piloting basic. Then it's all up to you to get the plane off, keep it in the air and land it back. There are 24,000 runways to choose from.

A dream come true

The seats, the throttle levers, the dashboard, the spreader are authentic pieces, the same used in "real" planes. The rest of the cockpit, fit for up to 4 persons, has been reproduced on a 1:1 scale.

A range of options

- Fly for fun: for aerospace enthusiasts. The instructors will initiate you to piloting, no matter what your starting level is
- Anti-stress course to fight a fear of flying: piloting can reduce anxiety
- IFR, MCC, ACPP, ME, ATPL pilots: special offers for professional pilots
- Incentives: perfect for teambuildings or special events. Contact the European Flight Simulator for more details.
