The Saint-Jacques gardens, which include a beautiful collection of rose bushes, will open to the public for a weekend. These beautiful blooms are sure to enchant you.

Lovers of floral art are invited to discover this incredible rose competition at the back of the former Saint-Jacques hospital, a 13th-century building. There will be over 800 varieties of roses and 5,000 rose bushes to admire.

An awakening of senses

Many cultural activities will be organised for the event: exhibitions, guided tours, storytelling, music, craft workshops, photography competition and many other surprises.

The flower queen will have no secret for you!
