Mons 2025 Foundation, supported by the expertise of Mars – Mons arts de la scène and the city's museum center, invites you to this new edition of its art and culture biennale.

For a month, the city of Mons will unroll a program of varied cultural events: dance, parties, urban art, immersive experiences, exhibitions, theater and music.

4 highlights not to be missed

- September 14 to 17: the Fêtes de Wallonie will feature concerts, a street theater and its famous fireworks
- September 20 to September 24: Digital Discoveries week devoted to art and technology
- September 25 to October 6: the Art habite la ville festival will have a trail of murals and sculptures designed by international artists

- Friday, October 6: don't miss the Museum Night dedicated to dance. The event will take place along different locations and museums of the Cité du Doudou.
