Get on board for a journey from New-York to Europe, step into the boots of an American soldier and get fully immersed in the Battle of Manhay. Thanks to decors recreating iconic scenes precisely, this museum dedicated to the second world war will help you better understand this tragic part of history.

The Battle of Manhay

The museum vividly tells the story of the Battle of Manhay (part of the Battle of the Bulge) from 23 December 1944 to the liberation of the last villages in January 1945. Visitors will be fascinated by the large collection of military artefacts. A stunning 10 mn video, using archive photos, sums up the events.

Worth seeing

Browse the shop for fascinating books on the subjects and souvenirs. Near the museum is a Panther tank as well as a monument dedicated to the American 75th infantry division. Cyclists can also enjoy a 30 km commemorative bike trail in the region.
