Amid woodlands, meadows and fields, Sohier stands out beautifully. In spring and summer, the village is filled with blooms, framing the architecture perfectly. Come, take a gentle stroll through its pretty streets or terroir market or join its beer festival for a bubbly time.

A village in bloom

The centre stretches along a large street lined with houses, opening onto the countryside. There is much to see architecture-wise: the former school, the Saint-Lambert church, the impressive castle... Visitors can follow the 2 km didactic trail through the village and learn more about its many gems of panels along the way. Make sure to add a detour to the nearby Explore the famous cave of the Domaine des Grottes de Han Caves of Han estate] and the Lavaux-Sainte-Anne castle.

Terroir and events

Every in February, the village hosts a weekend dedicated to 120 extraordinary beers, musical atmosphere included. Sohier also has a lovely terroir market with a focus on regional products and craft, held on Saturdays once every 2 months between April and September.

Gourmet delights

Time to indulge! L'Atelier des Sens is a retro-elegant restaurant-brasserie in the nearby village, just 4 km away. The chef serves traditional dishes with a Mediterranean twist. A very friendly address, where you can even spend the night.
