The Ile Robinson, on the Meuse river (near Liège), dates back to 1870. At the time just a stop for touristic boats, this island was redeveloped in the 30s as a leisure site open all year round. Play areas for children, sports activities, boat club, Palais de la danse et de la musique, guinguette... make it a lovely place to spend the day and relax.

The advantages of the Ile Robinson

- Play areas for children
- Sports activities
- Sailing and rowing club
- Picnic area
- Regular cultural and family activities
- Sand beach in the summer
