Throughout the year, the Five Seasons Festival in Chaudfontaine invites artists, landscapers and botanists to turn the Park Hauster into an experimental site.

Harmony between culture and nature

The Five Seasons Festival aims to discover, in an unprecedented way, vegetal works of art in a remarkable space. The objective is to celebrate nature and the surrounding landscape.

This is the only park of this type in Belgium.

A park in perpetual transformation

Each year, a new selection of Belgian and international artists design a masterpiece or installation in situ.

Activities and competitions are also on the programme, always starting from an original project.

The Festival continually presents new works, thus reminding the audience of the importance of preserving the region's biodiversity.

Why the name?

The fifth season is one of imagination and inspiration.

The artistic program of the festival – using natural materials – highlights the infinite ways to approach contemporary art.
