The concept of Wagon Léo designed around the railway universe, is quite unique. Located at the very heart of Bastogne, it combines an elegant bistro, a gastronomic restaurant, a deli, a comfortable hotel even and a superb railway station glass roof with steel frames.

Open in 1946, Le Wagon Léo is the perfect place to stay in Bastogne. Its 34 rooms (traditional, superior, deluxe), with a décor marked by the world of travel and trains, all have air conditioning, a minibar, a desk and a lounge area. A continental breakfast is served in the morning.

The Wagon Léo restaurant and the Léo bistro

Aboard Wagon Léo, in "Orient Express Style": period compartments and velvet seats, Parisian chandeliers, a large bar in zinc, and a seafood counter. Wagon Léo serves up bistro classics as well as seasonal fare.

A few steps away from the Restaurant Léo, Bistro Léo will welcome you in a timeless, friendly Parisian bistro style. Start your day with a delectable breakfast, continue with lunch on the fly, enjoy tea-time or a drink with friends in the afternoon, before finishing in style with a hearty evening meal. You can enjoy themed platters, salads, pasta, Valais fondues, raclettes or slate skillets, depending on the season.
