Set in a superb 18th-century house, the Famenne & Art Museum is a place full of memories, emotions and respect. It is located in the historical centre of Marche-en-Famenne, in the province de Luxembourg.

A museum, two experiences

In the main 17th century building, discover the little-known work of artist Remy Van den Abeele.

Then, in the 18th century wing, a chronological journey featuring jewellery, lace, sculptures, furniture, photography... takes you through 7,000 years of history in Famenne. From prehistoric to modern times, the Famenne & Art Museum presents:

- the Francs
- the Famenne region
- the Master of Waha, a tribute to a timeless sculptor, representative of late Gothic sculpture

- modern Art
- 20th century craftsmanship...

Summer family route

Throughout the summer, the Famenne & Art Museum organizes various activities for families:

- Visit of the "Press & Art" exhibition with a notebook in which children add their own creations
- Sensory tours of the museum's permanent collections.

Throughout the year, the FAM organizes temporary exhibitions, conferences, events, and even children's birthday parties. In addition, the shop offers a range of local, original and quality products.
