This lovely loop will take through the Gaume region. The route starts in Torgny, one of the prettiest villages in Wallonia. Its pretty roman tiles and its microclimate will let you think you're in the south of France instead of the South of Belgium...

From there the road goes up the hills. The region, thanks to its sunny orientation, produces a delicious wine. It also enjoys a sub-Mediterranean fauna and flora, quite unique in Belgium: mountain cicada, blue winged grasshoppers, orchids, large variety of trees...

Shortly after, the path dives towards Harnoncourt, from where you will see the Montquintin hill.
