Situated in the centre of Charleroi, the Musée des Beaux-Arts offers works by Belgian artists from the 19th century to the present day. The MBArts proudly highlights the wealth of its region.

Charleroi, past, present

Reopened in December 2022, this urban museum bears witness to the artistic past – 19th and 20th centuries – of Charleroi, its region, and more broadly, Wallonia. It also looks at contemporary artists who evoke this territory in one way or another.

A witness to collective memory, guardian of heritage, this Museum of Fine Arts offers numerous possibilities for discovery, particularly for young audiences:

- temporary exhibitions
- visits-activities

- conferences
- creative workshops
- concerts...

Permanent collection

The permanent collection is made of works from different artistic movements such as Neo-classicism, Romanticism, Orientalism, Realism, or Neo and Post-Impressionism, Abstraction, Surrealism and Contemporary Art.
