Located on the commune of Jodoigne (Walloon Brabant), Saint-Remy-Geest counts amongst the prettiest villages in Wallonia. This location has kept its charming farms and an 18th–19th century feel.

Welcome to the white county

Saint-Remy-Geest features white dwellings, made of the local Gobertange stone.

This material, used by renowned architects for its beauty and many qualities, can be found in grandiose monuments in Belgium (Brussels Grand Place and Town Hall, Malines cathedral, Ypres halls), France, Holland.

Built in the hills, around its church, this village invites to wander through its peaceful streets, its gorgeous landscapes, its cultural heritage such as the Genville mill. This building, which was successively used as an oil then flour mill, now welcomes visitors in its summer café
