

Car free Wallonia | Namur – Brussels

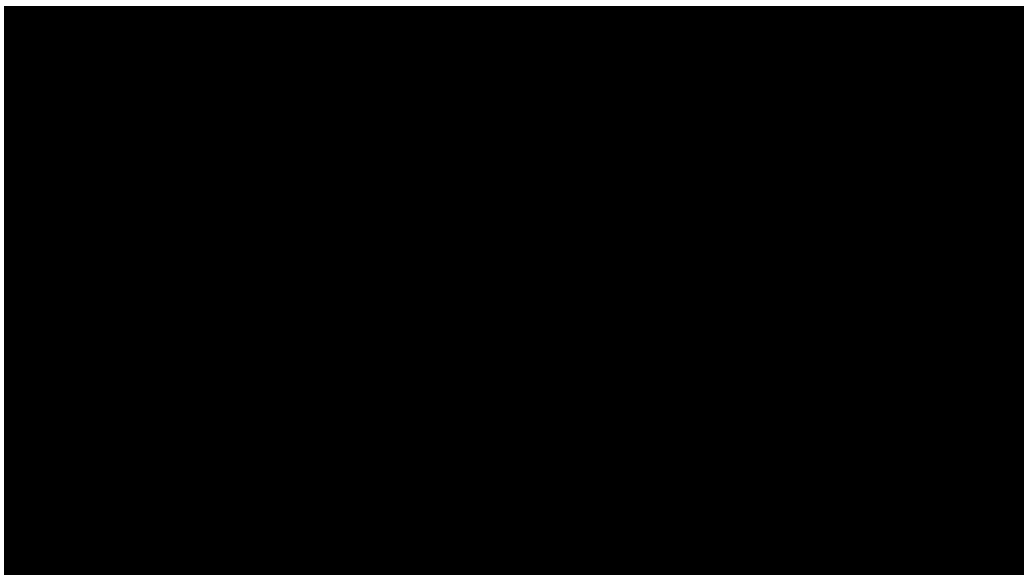

Philippe Piraux

Place De La Station 1
Namur – 5000

Rops, Folon, Hergé... This car-free itinerary, from Namur to Brussels, will inspire all artistic souls!

How does it work?

This itinerary starts and finishes at a train station. Between the two, other train stations where you will jump off then walk or cycle. Plan this nature escape as you wish: sport or relaxed pace, visits, spending the night somewhere on the way...

The itinerary

Start your journey in the capital of Wallonia: Namur is perfect to switch to slow tourism. There you will find amazing restaurants, and superb café terraces in the pedestrian center, along the Sambre and Meuse rivers too. In the heart of the historic quarters, the Musée Félicien Rops will immerse you in the work of this local 19th century painter.

The itinerary continues in the Walloon Brabant region, rich in cultural gems: Villers-la-ville abbe, Ottignies-Louvain-la-neuve, a pedestrian, university town, the Hergé Museum and L Museum.

Make a detour via the Genval lake and finish on a high, at the Château de la Hulpe and the Folon Foundation.
