

Car free Wallonia | Brussels – Liège

WB.T – Denis Erroyaux

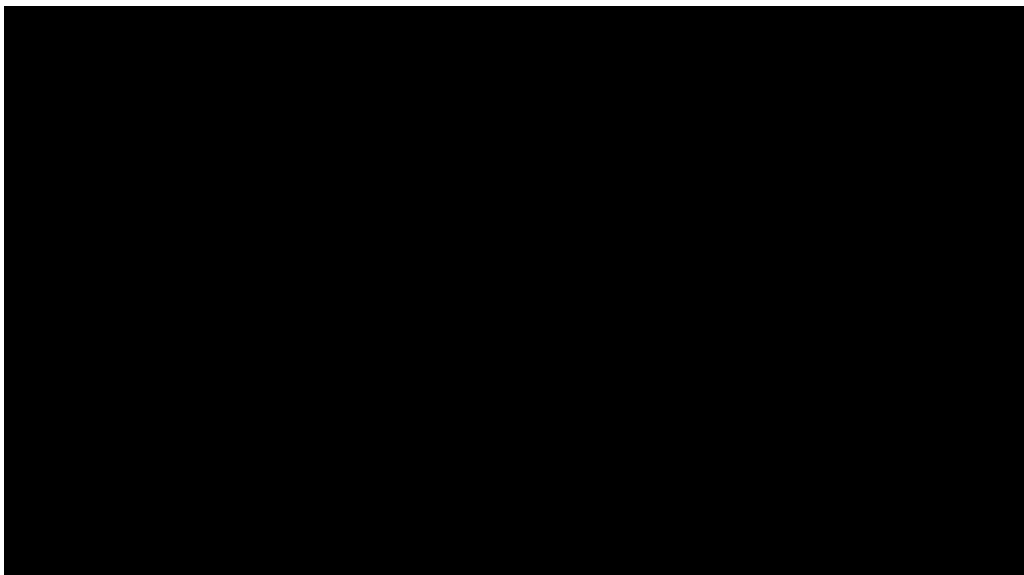

Rue Du Progrès 76

Schaerbeek – 1030

From Brussels to Liège – discover the Hesbaye region, its clear horizon, its wheat storehouses and square-shaped farms.

How does it work?

This itinerary starts and finishes at a train station. Between the two, other train stations where you will jump off then walk or cycle. Plan this nature escape as you wish: sport or relaxed pace, visits, spending the night somewhere on the way...

The itinerary

This several day journey will take you between Brussels and Liège, North of the Meuse. The Hesbaie region is known for its farming land and clear horizon.

Start the adventure in Hélicine and its famous castle, located in a 28 hectares estate. You will then cross the commune of Orp-Jauche, the Hainaut region then the stunning Geer Valley where you will find the Hollogne-Sur-Geer fortified mill. This splendid day out comes with nature reserves like the Paradis à Orp-le-Petit or Haut-Geer ones. Hikes in the region don't come with many steep slopes so is accessible to full beginners. Get ready to be amazed!
