The itinerary

This several days adventure between the Eastern Cantons and the town of Liège, a multilingual region, hilly, rich in history... and quite close to Germany and the Netherlands.

Start in Eupen, the capital of the German-speaking community in Belgium, with its many historical monuments, a surprising nature setting an excellent dishes. The Eupen lake and dam, also known Vesdre dam offer an exceptional panorama.

After a few kilometres in the Eastern Cantons, discover the Pays de Herve, renown for its delicious specialities such as the local cheese, apple and pear syrup and beers. The former rail tracks (now called Line 38) are of real importance here. You can cycle all the way to Liège on it! If you prefer to walk, head towards the Vesdre valley and the curiosities of its industrial past.

Finish our walk along the river in Chaudfontaine - don't forget to go and see the 4D exhibition on the extraordinary journey of a drop of water at Source O Rama. Next is a bike ride to Liège, a dynamic town, perfect if you fancy staying a little longer.
