Located in Hélécines (Brabant Wallon), the 2.5 hectares Domaine Beekborne vineyard produces natural wines from 4 terroirs: Poupouye, Les Garennes, Meer and Bosquet Jadoul.

The estate

From a clay soil and 4 unique terroirs, Patrick Carmans & Katrien Vanderschot decided to produce natural wines near Hélécine – a 100% Belgian production! These authentic, natural wines, are based on vitis vinifera varieties and French cloned ones (see below) as well as a hand, traditional production.

4 unique terroirs

- Poupouye: south oriented slope featuring Chardonnay varieties for the production of a monogrape white wine with apple and dry fruit notes

- Les Garennes: a hard soil, difficult to work but perfect Pinot noir, Pinot gris and Chardonnay, which produce a slightly pink white wine (blanc de noir) with deep fruit notes
- Meer: this terroir produces Pinot gris grapes for a monogrape rock'n'roll wine
- Bosquet Jadoul (2020): this vineyard is divided in 3 parcels: Chenin blanc, Aligoté, Chardonnay
