Located near Saint-Ghislain, this vineyard produces terroir wines on a 3 hectares estate located along a charming village in the Province of Hainaut.

Terroir wines

The cooperative was born of the passion of a handful of friends, wishing to produce environmental friendly terroir wines. The aim is to have an estate with 12,000 vine plants over several parcels.

3 iconic products

The wine makers have chosen grape varieties adapted to the Belgian climate and soil. The goal is to produce:

- a dry white wine from Sauvignier gris and Johanniter
- a red wine from Cabernet cortis and Pinotin
- a sparkling wine from Johanniter
