Grand Curtius in Liège will be hosting the « Images d'un monde en crise » (a world in crisis) photo exhibition as part of Le Printemps Simenon festival.

This exhibition will feature the pictures taken by Georges Simenon between 1930 and 1935.

The photos present his many travels around the world and highlight universal themes such as women, children, misery, isolation, turmoil, marginal groups. Captured at just the right moment, they show great humanity.
