Over 50 pieces by professional serigrapher Jean-Pierre Point are on show at BPS22 in Charleroi.

The name of the exhibition is « Il y a quelque chose de beau dans les objets qui nous entourent » (there is beauty in everything around us), thus reflecting with perfection the simple, authentic moments captures in his private life.

What to expect

- A focus on 50 serigraphs made between 1970 and 2000 from photographs superimposed with coloured dots.
- In parallel of this exhibition, the artist's work dedicated to his childhood location will be on show
