Experience magical moments in the heart of 280 hectares of nature. The Landal Forest Resort Your Nature invites you to settle down in Antoing, province of Hainaut, for a total disconnection in an exceptional setting.

If ecotourism is important to you, you've come to the right place. At Forest Resort Your Nature, you swap your car for a bike, a scooter or an electric cart. From the reception, the tone is set: wood and natural materials are omnipresent. Nothing changes in your spruce wood ecolodge, which literally blends into nature. At nightfall, listen, you might hear a tawny owl...

Walk through this unspoiled nature full of peaceful bodies of water. Go to the Grand Large and its water activities: towed buoy, kayak, electric paddle, canoe... Or perhaps you would prefer to dive in one of the 3 swimming pools heated with biogas? If you feel more comfortable on land than in water, play mini-golf, play volleyball or try archery with your family. And how about a first flight in a hot air balloon? From up there, nature is even more beautiful...
