Ecau Lodge offers eco-responsible accommodation in a natural and peaceful setting in Écaussinnes-d'Enghien. There are plenty of activities and discoveries to enjoy on site, while being close to many attractions in the province of Hainaut.

A model of eco-responsibility

The 16 lodges in the Ecau Lodge village are environmentally friendly with pellet heating, LED lighting and wastewater treatment. The place aims to minimize its impact on the planet.

Located between Mons and Brussels, in Belgium, just 1.2 km from a train station, Ecau Lodge offers free activities that encourage disconnection and a return to basics.

Families, groups and friends will appreciate the leisure facilities such as the pétanque court or the ping-pong table. Some accommodations are equipped with a Norwegian bath on the terrace.

Visitors can also enjoy quality products from local producers and nearby restaurants.
