This autumn, the Musée de La Boverie welcomes the American artist Bill Viola with the exhibition Sculptor of Time. Celebrating the work of this unequalled videographer, this feature can be discovered in a setting of the Cité Ardente.

A video art exhibition in Liège

The sources of inspiration for the New York videographer are multiple: Buddhist, Sufi and Christian religions, crossed with universal humanism.

From Melbourne to Bilbao, via Tokyo, New York, Rome or Paris, the art of this sculptor of time has attracted hundreds of thousands of people. It is now your turn to discover the extent of his immersive and powerful works.
