Through the Fabric(s) Contemporary Art Biennale, the Wool and Fashion Tourist Center (CTLM) in Verviers presents the textile history of the city from different angles. Around ten artists illustrate in parallel the renewal of textile creation.

Verviers International Biennale of Contemporary Art

A former world textile capital, Verviers hosts an international exhibition every 2 years which unravels the history of local textile creation from creative, social, economic and human aspects.

During the biennial, 13 artists present their work, all included in the CTLM's permanent itinerary dedicated to the region's industrial past.

With the Etoffe(s) Prize, the Wool and Fashion Tourist Center aims to generate and strengthen a dynamic of contemporary textile artistic creation as well as showcasing this renewal.
