Charleroi Museum of Photography invites you to discover Papagalo, What's The Time?, a short film by Ingel Vaikla about Yugoslav childhood.

A short film in Charleroi

Papagalo, What's The Time? explores the architecture of the former Yugoslav pavilion designed for the Universal Exhibition in Brussels (1958) - in its current function as the Collège Saint-Paul. Directed by Ingel Vaikla, the film follows a group of children playing old Yugoslav games in the building. The camera moves from the exterior to the interior spaces, along the corridors from floor to floor.
