The University Museum of Louvain, in Walloon Brabant, presents this new exhibition, exploring the visual universe that inspired so many great names in literature.

Paintings of literary inspiration

Based on archive files and testimonies, Murs d'images d'écrivains features reconstructions of writing offices, most of them shown for the first time.

The tour highlights the different forms and functions of image walls for a writer, with a range of varied cases, from the end of the 19th century to the present day.
