Following the banks of the beautiful Semois river, this walk reaches the most beautiful viewpoint in the Ardennes, the Giant's Tomb and its stunning succession of panoramas.

The Cordemois bridge opens the way to sometimes steep paths, leading exceptional viewpoints. Once you have crossed the Moulin de l'Epine, a GR section takes you towards the Moulin du Rivage and then up to the place called Neufmoulin. Make sure to climb the belvedere at the end of the hike: the view over Bouillon from there is simply breathtaking.

Departure: Pont de Cordemois (Rue de la Poulie, 6830 Bouillon)

Distance: 14 km

Level: difficult

Marking: red rectangle (walk no. 7 and no. 5)

Looking for a place to stop for lunch along your walk? The Moulin de l'Epine offers a very pleasant picnic spot on the banks of the Semois river.
