Le Delta, in Namur, presents their new exhibition La carte postale, objet de collection, oeuvre d'art. A full immersion in postcards as a means of communication from 1869 on.

A selection of works based on postcards

This exhibition reveals the way artists appropriated this popular medium from both a historical and contemporary perspective:

- photomontages during the First World War (Grosz and Heartfield)
- The Surrealist Map of 1937
- the masterpiece postcard (Marcel Broodthaers)
- the Eiffel Tower adapted by Hans-Peter Feldman
- the post-conceptual works of Jacqueline Mesmaeker

- Oriol Villanova's installation
- Conferences and guided tours
