In Stavelot, cultural and natural heritage come together on this varied walk. Starting in the city, you will quickly find yourself in a completely different decor, composed of steep rocks and one of the most beautiful rivers in the region.

From Stavelot Abbey, follow the banks of the Amblève river and set off to discover the hamlets of Challes, Warche and Chevofose.

The path takes you through green meadows and majestic forests for an invigorating walk, where a pair of quality shoes will, without a doubt, be your essential ally.

Departure: Quai des Vieux Moulins 69 at 4970 Stavelot

Distance: 12km

Difficulty: easy

Marking: yellow rectangles

Stavelot and its old historic center are well spending time in, as is the abbey and its three museums.
