Discover Unisound BW is the first festival accessible to all in Belgium.

Although much is done to support people with reduced mobility these days, too many activities remain inaccessible. Going to a music festival, for example, is quite a challenge. The organizers decided it was time to put together a quality musical event, accessible to all. The aim, of course, is for people with or without restrictions of movement to enjoy its amazing atmosphere. 2,300 festival goers now join this event each year.

Music and fun

- Concerts of rising Belgian stars
- Animations for all ages (face painting, wooden games, karaoke, adapted bikes and swings)
- Creative workshops

- Dance lessons
- Cyclodance demos
- Debates
- Photo exhibition
