An irresistible sense of humour, mind wowing stunts and amazing music: Les Tilleuleries is the perfect harmony between theatre and circus. Discover this ever so touching street festival in Nassogne.

Les Tilleuries is a festival dedicated to fairground and street theatre, all on a human scale. It's all about friendliness, smiles and sharing a good time. For this new edition, expect emotions, laughs, amazing acrobatic challenges and memorable shows.

The local population is very involved in this project, with over 60 volunteers helping with the organisation.

A rich and varied program

Many shows will have their own fixed stage. A fantastic selection of theatre and circus companies will wow children and adults alike with their interpretations - some comical, other acrobatic. The perfect family day out!
