Discover painting, artisan crafts, artistic creation, exhibitions, designs and entertainment in the small village of Nutons.

Around 30 artists dressed as fairies and Macralles (witches in the local Walloon dialect) gather here each year on the first Sunday in June.

Painters, watercolour artists, visual artists and artisans spread out their materials and get out their paintbrushes to delight those who love a stroll. All along the streets and taverns, charcoal and clay compete with pastels and hand crafted jewellery. People of all ages will enjoy this event.

Achouffe: its beer and region

This is a great opportunity to discover Achouffe, its gastronomy, its world-famous beer, its walks in the countryside and its artists, all brought together like a miniature Montmartre!

The day is punctuated by friendly competitions, street re-enactments and musical events.

Admission is free.
