Enjoy this intensely atmospheric carnival thanks to the dynamism, good humour and participation of all the locals.

The program

Sunday

Over a thousand participants, guilds and music guilds will join the procession. For three hours, the streets of this Mosan town will be at its most joyful. Expect smiles and dancing too!

Monday and Tuesday

Time for balls, family fun and a waiters' race.

Follows a trial - a witch (called a macrâle, symbolising winter) is condemned to be burnt on a bonfire. Spring is now officially on its way. The evening will conclude on fireworks...
